EXCELLENT RENDITION

"A Gilded Fool" Presented With the Skill of Professionals

Last evening Reno home talent acquitted itself with all the skill of the professional. The play, "A Gilded Fool," a four-act comedy-drama, was presented by the Reno Dramatic club in McKissick's opera house for the benefit of the Nevada State University Athletic Association under the direction of F. P. Dann.

Those participating in the cast were C. L. Knox, F. P. Dann, J. B. Schweitzer, Mr. Fitzmaurice, W. J. Luke, Jr., Herbert Skinner, George Palmer, Dr. Steckle, Misses Sadie Phillips, Jennie Kyle, Maud Nash and Mrs. Sam Phelan.

The theater was crowded to the doors with an appreciative audience last evening and the proceeds were much greater than anticipated.

The pleasure of the evening was greatly enhanced by the music of the Eagle band and orchestra, which played in front of the opera house and later within. Reno has long been without a theater orchestra and the innovation bids fair to become a permanent thing. The services of the band were gratis.

The next attraction at the opera house will be the Lady Minstrels on the evening of the 14th.

A Popular Candidate

A couple of years ago a voting contest was held to discover who was the most popular man in Reno. W. R. D. Graham won by a handsome majority. This was due not entirely to his good looks, but to his estimable qualities. He is now a candidate for the assembly from this county and will doubtless win with a couple of hundred votes to spare. The voters of Washoe will make no mistake in supporting Mr. Graham.

Death of a Nevada Man

SAN FRANCISCO, October 10.—John Forbes, a well known mining man from Nevada, died at the Fabolia Hospital in Oakland today, after a long illness. He was formerly connected with the firm of D. W. Earl & Company of this city and was largely interested in the mines of Hawthorne, Esmeralda county, Nevada.

A Big Contract

The Reno Pressed Brick Company has in the last couple of weeks shipped sixteen carloads of brick to Floriston for the new buildings in course of construction there. The company has contracted for fourteen carloads more.

Making Their Canvass

General Sweeney, State Printer Maute, General Kelley and State Treasurer Ryan came down from Carson last evening and continued on to the eastern part of the State, where they will make a most thorough canvass of every corner of Nevada for the entire Fusion ticket. Their itinerary includes several thousand miles.

Running for the Lead

C. B. Bell has returned from a visit to Olinghouse Gulch, where he has men at work in the Crown Point mine, which he recently bonded. A drift is being run to catch the ledge, which is now believed to be near at hand. Seams of clay panning well are being cut.

Old-Time Renoite

N. H. Pine of Eureka, Cal., is here on a visit to his brother-in-law, R. J. Sanders. Mr. Pine was educated in the Reno public schools and has many friends here. It has been years since he visited this city. Mr. Pine owns a machine shop in Eureka.

A Terse Verdict

"Served him right," was the verdict of the coroner's jury summoned to investigate the death of F. Wilson, who was shot and killed by Gus Linstrom who he attempted to hold up at Carlin.

LINCOLN POLITICS

Hot Shot Fired by the Speakers of Fusion Ticket

DELAMAR, Nev. Oct. 10.—C. D. Van Duzer and Sam P. Davis addressed a large audience here last evening. Just at the close of Mr. Van Duzer's remarks the electric lights in the hall were turned out. There was great confusion and some hisses as the audience arose to leave.

Mr. Davis took the platform and began addressing the audience in the darkness. He announced that he would speak as advertised, lights or no lights.

The large audience remained in their seats while Mr. Davis continued speaking until coal oil lights and candles were brought into the hall.

The speaker made a thorough exposure of the way the DeLamar and April Fool companies had swindled the State and county out of over half a million dollar in taxes. He presented a complete array of figures substantiating his statement and charged Assessor Freudenthal and District Attorney McNamee with having allowed these companies to perpetrate a swindle and throw the county into debt.

His talk was the most startling and merciless exposure of official rotteness ever made in Lincoln county. It was received with hearty demonstration by the audience and is the talk of the town today.

The Republicans admit the truth of the statement and many say they are glad that the whole thing has been made public. It absolutely defeats the Republican ticket in Lincoln county.

Mr. Van Duzer's reply to Farrington's personal remarks on Mr. Newlands was dignified and instructive and thoroughly undid Farrington's work here and made Newlands many votes.

Lincoln county is now safely Fusion for the entire ticket. The turning out of the electric lights has caused expressions of indignation, even among Republicans, who announce that they deprecate such work and will vote the Fusion ticket.

To Denis O'Sullivan

Music and playactin' both has a part of it,
What's at the heart of it, Denis awick?
Playin' with feelin's is perilous dealin's
Where did ye go that they larnt ye the trick?
Och, man, what are ye after now,
Sighin' or laughter now, which'll it be?
Shure an it's laughin' he's off at his chaffin'
An' isn't he death on the Widow Machree?

Where did ye go that they larnt ye the mad old ways
Born of the bad old days, Denis mavrone?
Stife and unquiet, confusion and riot,
Surge thro' yer singin's tempestuous note
Och, man, the way that ye waken the Storms that have shaken the land of O'Meill,
Till we quake at the cryin' for Red Owen's dyin',
An' shrink from the horror of poison and steel.
Why does the voice o' ye flutter the whole o' me,
Down to the soul o' me, Denis Asthore?
All o' yer sadness is threaded w' gladness—
Gladness o' life tho' the livin' hearts sore.
Och, man, what are ye doin' now,
Billin' and coolin' now—storming like mad,
Yer voice thunder breakin' thro' jests that ye're makin'
With tears in yer laughter an' smiles when ye're sad.

INTERESTING MEETING

Chamber of Commerce Adopts Constitution and By-Laws

Pursuant to call by the Chairman, J. M. McCormack, a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce was held in Wheelmen's hall last evening to hear the reports of the committees on constitution and by-laws and permanent organization.

About fifty representative citizens were in attendance and the proceedings were marked by interest and enthusiasm.

The committee of constitution and by-laws reported that a draft of the constitution and by-laws and incorporation papers had been drawn up. The documents were read and adopted seriatim.

The committee on permanent organization asked for further time in which to complete their report, stating that as much depended upon the personnel of the various committees and holders of office, they desired to canvass the situation most thoroughly before reporting. An extension of time was granted.

Each member present was appointed a committee of one to invite prospective signers of the roll to be present at a meeting to be held next Monday evening to complete organization.

The success of the Chamber of Commerce is best assured by the character and business standing of those present and the earnestness and care with which each clause of the articles of incorporation and by-laws was scanned. In the discussion brought about by the provisions of these instruments there was evidence of a thorough appreciation of the situation and necessity for such an organization, as well as a desire to make it as nearly perfect as possible. During this discussion there were brought to light many pertinent points that had not hitherto been considered, emphasizing the urgent need of a Chamber of Commerce if properly handled.

The Greatest Wealth is Health

THE greatest wealth is not lands, houses, farms, stocks or bonds, but Health. Many a millionaire would give his million to eat with the appetite, and sleep with the peace enjoyed by the Indian. Yet it does not need millions to be the equal of the Indian in health. The secret of his strength is now at your command.

KICKAPOO SAGWA RESTORES LOST HEALTH

The Indian shut out from all outside help was obliged to wrest from Nature the secrets of her healing herbs. Slowly, he gleaned his knowledge and perfected it. Those centuries of slow results are represented today by the perfected compound Kickapoo Indian Sagwa. There is no other remedy that has so many and so wonderful cures to its credit. It is purely vegetable. It is Nature's own remedy, as used by Nature's own children. It purifies the blood, strengthens the stomach, assists the kidneys in their functions, regulates the liver, and makes the whole man sound and strong. No other remedy is sold under a guarantee that your money will be refunded if it does not fulfill every claim made for it. You can lose nothing by Sagwa while you can obtain the wealth of health by using it as directed. Sold by all druggists.

THE MAN AND HIS RECORD

Political Methods of Wm. M. Stewart, the Traitor.

The following from the Virginia Chronicle applies with equal force to all counties in the State as to Storey. A vote for a Republican candidate for State Senator unquestionably means a boost to Stewart in 1904.

Since the days of Benedict Arnold there probably was never a man so detested as William M. Stewart is by the people of Nevada. Elected to the Senate by the Silver Party in 1899, he was not warm in his seat when he betrayed the people who had elected him. Like the Judas Iscariot that he is, he went over to the party that had fought him with might and main at the polls, had abused him and vilified him (if it is possible to abuse and vilify so abject a wretch) and voted with them on every proposition inimical to the people and favorable to the trusts. Elected in March by the Silver Party, he declared in May that the silver question was dead. Elected as a supporter of Bryan and Bryanism he not only voted for and supported McKinley, but ridiculed and abused Bryan. Elected by a party of reform—a party of the people, he voted to man American vessels with Chinese sailors, he voted for the ship subsidy bill, he voted against a resolution of sympathy for the Boers.

It is a notorious fact that, in spite of this category of crimes against political propriety Stewart will be a candidate for the U. S. Senate two years from now. And he expects, in spite of this record, to be elected. Why? Because he believes that one-half of the voters of Nevada are slaves and the other half, fools. In other words, those he cannot hoodwink, he will buy.

There is not a man in the Fusion party of Storey county today who would knowingly give his vote to the election of William M. Stewart. But he game of hoodwink is going on in Storey county, and these very same men are going to vote for William M. Stewart for Senator. They don't intend to do it but the trap is laid, just the same.

NEWS OF THE STATE

Items of Interest taken from our Numerous Exchanges

It is now definitely decided that the Truckee River company will supply electric power to Carson. The material for extending a line to that city has been ordered, and several locations for a sub-station at Carson are under consideration.

Randall Sage arrived last evening from his ranch in the extreme northern part of the county and reported to Sheriff McDeld his having shot and supposedly killed a sheep herder whose identity is still unknown here. —Silver State.

A tough looking individual appeared at the F. Eagles sheep ranch on the Carson river one day last week. He had enough guns and ammunition on his person to equip a small sized army. He caught sight of the man who has charge of the ranch and immediately covered him and demanded some grub. When he seated himself at the table he made his unwilling host sit beside him, and placed a revolver in front of his plate. After finishing his meal he warned his host not to say a word about the affair and with an oath started over the hill. —Record.

The farmers held a meeting Saturday in Gardnerville and decided to build a new dam at the lower end of Sunset lake in Alpine county and put in 48 feet of 18-inch pipe to drain the lake. The lake is one of the reservoirs used by the farmers to store water for irrigation. Men will be put to work on the new dam as soon as the pipe arrives from below. It is expected that the dam will cost about $600. Other dams for storing water which will be rebuilt in the next few years will cost from $1000 to $2000 each. Some of the dams will be 35 feet high and others only 30 or 25 feet. —Courier.

Tribune's Interview with Col. Jenkins

Col. J. H. Jenkins, one of the old guard by which the Mizpah group at Tonopah, Nev., was purchased for $336,000, and made the foundation for the pioneer Tonopah mining company, came in from his Philadelphia home yesterday, saw the town in company with W. P. O'Meara, who shared in one of the company's most productive leases and leaves for the west again today. The Colonel is one of the founders of the Mizpah extension at which the latter strike in camp was recently recorded, and says that while there is much temptation to begin the prospecting of the ledge on the level at which it was tapped, the management has decided to continue to a depth of 500 feet for which level it started when the first pick was buried in the collar of the shaft. Now that water for the camp has been assured, he looks for it to grow more rapidly, while with this element on the ground the metallurgic problems by which the companies are confronted will be greatly simplified. What this will be followed by should soon be determined, and the reduction of ore which is now accomplished at a great sacrifice rendered easier.

RAN A TEN PENNY NAIL RIGHT THROUGH HIS HAND.

While opening a box, J. C. Mount, of Three Mile Bay, N. Y., ran a ten penny nail through the fleshy part of his hand. "I thought at once of all the pain and soreness this would cause me," he says, "and immediately applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm and occasionally afterwards. To my surprise it removed all pain and soreness and the injured parts were soon healed." For sale by S. J. Hodgkinson.

UPSETS ALL PREDICTIONS

J. F. Hughes was a candidate for county treasurer at Du Pont, Ga., but it was predicted that he could not live six months. He was afflicted with a running abscess on his lung and suffered for three years; his life trembled in the balance when he heard of Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption. He tried it and was finally cured and thus upset the predictions of all who knew him. It's positively guaranteed for throat and lung trouble by S. J. Hodgkinson. Price 60c and $1.00. Trial bottle, free.

Governor Sadler's Plan of Settlement

Yesterday Governor Sadler received the following telegram:
"If you were Governor of Pennsylvania, what steps would you take to cause the resumption of work at the anthracite coal mines."
"CHICAGO AMERICAN."
The Governor replied to the telegram as follows:
"This is a hard problem, but were I Governor of Pennsylvania, to avert public calamity, I would take possession of the mines in the name of the State, giving striking miners employment to relieve the distress, and let the coal operators seek redress through the courts."
"REINHOLD SADLER,"
"Governor."

Nevada Mining News via Salt Lake

The days receipts at the Taylor & Bruntton sampler consisted of nine cars of ore from Tintic and three from Nevada.
The return of M. J. O'Meara, who has been at Tonopah, Nev., for several weeks, is scheduled for "almost any train" from the west.
The producers of Tonopah, Nev., had three more cars of ore at the furnaces of the American Smelting and Refining company yesterday.

GAINED FORTY POUNDS IN THIRTY DAYS.

For several months our younger brother had been troubled with indigestion. He tried several remedies but got no benefit from them. We purchased some of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and he commenced taking them. Inside of thirty days he had gained forty pounds in flesh. He is now fully recovered. We have a good trade on the tablets. Hollex Bros., Merchants, Long Branch, Mo. For sale by S. J. Hodgkinson.

JOHN H. DENNIS, Editor

NOT HARMONIOUS

THE Republican party is not enviably conditional just at the present time. The difference between the party leaders are great and widespread. President Roosevelt says he is against the trusts and that he would like to see their power defined. He has not outlined any course by which he may eliminate their greed and avarice, but he is making great pretense in that direction. He seems to think he knows what won't control them, but has suggested nothing that will. He insists that all legislation pertaining to the trusts should be placed in the hands of the central government.

There are those in the party who are positive that the federal government has sufficient power at the present time to bring about the needed reforms, but it refuses to do so. What better could be expected in connection with the trusts? It refuses to use the power it has in that direction.

The Sherman anti-trust law is on the statute books at Washington, but no effort has ever been made to test it in its criminal capacity. President Roosevelt knows this and he knows that if, as the executive of the nation, he would enforce the Sherman anti-trust law, that all would be well, so far as the people are concerned. But he is afraid to do it. He may talk and the trusts will not complain, but if he should act then Teddy feels that he would be in trouble.

The Iowa Republicans say that reducing the tariff will limit the ability of the trusts to exact tribute from the people, but other Republicans say this is not so. Senators Hoar and Lodge of Massachusetts are not in harmony with one another on many questions, and neither of them is in harmony with the administration. Platt and Quay are at outs with Roosevelt and their differences cannot be easily harmonized. In the Southern States the white Republicans are excluding the colored brethren from their conventions and councils. Speaker Henderson has resigned—presumably his people in Iowa are opposed to his continuing so close to the President with whom they cannot agree. We are afraid that Republican brethren are hopelessly derided.

A WEAK ARGUMENT

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT upsets the pettifogging argument of the monopoly defenders—that the Standard Oil Trust and anthracite combine are "unprotected," and hence tariff reduction is no remedy for monopoly. In other words if twenty-five per cent of the monopolies are not "sheltered by the tariff," reduction is no remedy for the seventy-five that are sheltered. It is pitiful to see a President putting forth such rubbish.

But it is not true that the coal and oil trusts are "unprotected." There is a high duty on all by-products of petroleum which are so valuable that a barrel of crude oil, worth for fuel a little over a dollar, we believe, $4 worth of these products—benzine, naphtha, dyes, etc., are extracted, leaving the refined oil as so much more clear profit. In addition to this the Standard oil company gets a rebate under the Dingley law, for all of the duties on the tin used in its export trade. In other words while every citizen of Nevada who puts a tin roof on his home or buys a tea kettle must pay a tariff added tax to the tin trust. The Standard oil company, which declares dividends of forty-eight per cent, or $48,000,000 a year, gets its tin at foreign price, and then secures a rebate from the treasury of the sixty-five per cent duty!

Now as to anthracite. It is true that there is no duty upon it because practically there is no foreign coal of that character. But the duty of sixty-seven cents a ton on bituminous coal does give the anthracite monopoly protection against the abundant soft coal in Nova Scotia and other countries.

And those are the two examples upon which President Roosevelt bases his declaration that trust evils "cannot be remedied by any change in the tariff laws."

HOW THE TRUSTS EFFECT NEVADA

HOW the wire trust affects the people of Nevada is tersely told by W. Gilmer, one of Elko county's solid ranchers, who says the year before the trust was formed he sold his steers for $35 a head and it took two to pay for a ton of barbed wire. This year after the trust was formed he sold his steers for $23.50 a head and it took four of them to pay for a ton of barbed wire. Mark Hanna once said a trust was a good thing for the people, but Mark would have much trouble in convincing Mr. Gilmer that the wire trust is a good thing for Nevada ranchers.—Elko Independent.

As the barbed wire trust affects directly the ranchers and stock raisers, there are scores of other trusts that burden and oppress every man, woman and child in the State. This is evidenced by the fact that nearly all of the necessities of life, articles of daily consumption, are monopolized by the trusts, which limits or expands their production at their sovereign will and pleasure, and fixes the prices thereon, which averages at least twenty per cent greater than if there was legitimate and wholesome competition. But the people of the State will have an opportunity to protest against this outrageous condition of things by sending an anti-Republican each, to the United States Senate and House of Representatives. If they fail to do this, they will richly deserve the continued oppression lords and masters whose supremacy they will acknowledge and endorse by their voice at the polls.

THE importance of the election this year in Nevada to the National Democracy should make every Democrat and Silver party man stand solidly by Francis G. Newlands and Clarence D. Van Duzer. The Democracy of the East is making a gallant struggle to win seats in the Senate and to control the House of Representatives and their brethren in Nevada should not desert them when their help is most needed. Nevada Democrats especially should do their full duty to their party. Stand by Newlands and VanDuzer and share in the national victory. Don't give aid to the enemy by voting for Hawley or Farrington.—Elko Independent.

OLD WILLIAM MOUNTBANK STEWART is to be home on the coast tomorrow and the "bhoys" in Nevada are getting ready to give him a reception. They are not investing in brass bands, bunting, roman candles or gun powder. They are hunting up bung starters, augers, centrebits, dynamite or any old thing that will bore a bank, spring a lock or open a vault.—Virginia Chronicle.

THE JOURNAL has never said a disrespectful word of any Republican candidate, with the exception perhaps of Wm. M. Stewart. But then it is hardly possible to speak respectfully of a man whom nobody respects.

The Reliance Game Will Give the Key of the Situation

(By Sam Francovich.)

You cannot tell what kind of a chance Nevada has against the two big California Varsitys unless you go up and see them play. Today's game is free and there is good material to pick from this season. The varsity will not have a snap against the second eleven. Next Saturday the first and last game with any outside team will be played before going to California and meeting the big varsitys down there. This game will be played with the Reliance Club of Oakland. This is the only club the three varsitys play before playing each other. Already Stanford defeated Reliance by a score of 12 to 0 and California defeated them a week later 16 to 0. Now after the Reliance game a person can tell how the three varsitys will play against each other.

Every man on the U. of N. team is getting into good form, although Melin, who makes the scales go up to 225, is getting into trim slowly. With two more weeks of hard work he ought to be able to put up a good stiff game. C. Smith is playing the best game at guard, although he is a little light for that position. A Steckle and Reardon are playing a good game at tackles, better than any other previous tackles. The other night Karney got his shoulder browned out of place, but he will be laying in his position at end in a few days. F. Smith is playing fast and fierce on the other end. The backs are all in good shape. Quarterback Leadbetter, Fullback Evans and J. Steckle and Farsel are all light first men and ought to be hard to catch by an opposing team. J. Peckham is playing a star game for the second team. He was out only a short time and had not bicycle riding interfered so he could get out sooner he would make the varsity easy. Anyhow he will make a hard try for a position. O'Hara and Woolf are also playing a good game.

With all of this good material out and Steckle as coach and Keddle and E. Smith, the former Nevada crack halfbacks, as assistant coaches, Nevada ought to be a winner this season. The game this afternoon will be between the first and second elevens. The admission is free, so everyone can come and see the game. Nearly all the stores will close and people from the surrounding country will attend the game.

Parents' Day in the School Room

The ever popular eighth grade teacher, Mrs. L. C. Booth, invited the mothers of her pupils to spend yesterday afternoon in her room at the brick school.

The invitation met a hearty response, and the mothers had the pleasure and the profit of seeing how recitations are conducted and how their children compare with others in knowledge of the work already gone over by Mrs. Booth this year, for lessons were the first feature of the afternoon.

After this, a few recitations entertained the mothers, while tea and cakes were passed by the pupils.

The loaves and fishes which remained were promptly disposed of by the entertainers at the close of the afternoon.

This is an ideal way for mothers to become acquainted, not only with their own children (who are sometimes very different in school from what they are at home), but also with the mothers of the other children as well as with the teacher who is often merely a name in the homes of her children.

Mrs. Booth is to be congratulated for being the first teacher of Reno to inaugurate the happy custom. Let the good work go on.

Thomas Cole was yesterday elected President of the Chollar Mining Company and Emmett Barrett, President of the Potosi, to fill the vacancies caused by the death of H. B. Goodwin.

CONFESSIONS OF A PRIEST

Rev. Jno. S. Cox, of Wake, Ark., writes, "For 12 years I suffered from Yellow Jaundice. I consulted a number of physicians and tried all sorts of medicines, but got no relief. Then I began the use of Electric Bitters, and feel that I am now cured of a disease that had me in its grasp for twelve years." If you want a reliable medicine for liver and kidney trouble, stomach disorder or general debility, get Electric Bitters. It's guaranteed by S. J. Hodgkinson. Only 50c.

THE RACING OUTLOOK

Discussion of the Situation by One Who Knows

(By King Ryan.)

The racing days are over and the speed merchants of the Reno Wheelmen have raised their handle bars and are gliding along in a restful way, thinking what might have been if the ever-foxy Garden City pluggers hadn't handed them a huge cross with a duplicate attachment. Not until spring time comes again will the racing fever pervade the scorcher's frame and cause the fighting blood within to tingle and race through his veins in record time.

After a long string of championship "wins," the defeat of the local team has already done more to stimulate the cycling game and create renewed interest throughout the coast than anything that could have happened. Next year will probably see the fastest team ever produced in Nevada, as the old-timers are thoroughly aroused and many new ones are already looking forward to the time when following pace shall be almost as pleasant as sleigh riding in winter. Without any prejudice, the home team are the fastest and strongest bunch on the coast and certainly will be in the coming year.

The old saying in regard to fooling some of the people some of the time, etc., will go home to the present "champs" with a jar. The Garden City's are anxious to ride here next spring and on the other hand the home team would rather fight it out in the Golden State.

Registration Progressing

At noon yesterday there were 1537 names upon the list of registered voters. There are still at least 300 voters who have not enrolled their names.

Denis O'Sullivan in Heartful Ballads

"An extraordinary gifted artist." This was the verdict of one of our most fastidious and learned professional musicians, overheard on leaving Mr. Dennis O'Sullivan's concert of Friday evening, and the opinion was re-echoed by everyone in the hall, says the Irish Figaro. Perhaps amazement at his ease and versatility was the predominant feeling in an audience whose enthusiasm seemed unbounded. Vivacious and tender French songs, German songs, full of depth and sweetness, a tragic Scotch ballad, the whirling giddiness of the Neapolitan tarantella, and Irish songs of every sort, from wild despairing laments to Moore's light ditties, and the rollicking humor of Wodow Machree—all these we had, and it is almost impossible to say in which Mr. O'Sullivan was the best. I myself, preferred the quieter Gorman songs for pure pleasure. They showed the beautiful quality of his voice; his tenderness, and the fine culture of his singing better than anything else.

Mr. O'Sullivan is a consummate actor; and humorous songs like the Irish, or the exquisitely comical Somersetshire courting are really more displays of acting than genuine music. In extraordinary dramatic power the terrible Scotch tragic ballad, Edward, surpassed anything of the kind I ever heard in a concert room.

AETNA MINERAL WATER

(Bottled at Aetna Springs, Napa Co. Cal.)

There are so many kinds of mineral waters on the market, and all claiming to possess healthful properties, that it is difficult for a person to make a choice.

When we consider, however, that AETNA has stood in the front rank for years, has been a favorite in households as well as public resorts, and has been recommended by eminent physicians, who use it themselves and prescribe it for patients, there should be no question in the matter of selection.

SOME cotton comforts look well and wear badly. Others wear well and look badly. The housewife desires the kind that both look and wear well—the sort that keep the i freshness after the first few weeks of service; are not filled with shoddy that turns to dust in a short time; don't display hills and valleys; are not quick to show resentment at nursery use. The are filled with pure cotton. They give the service of pure cotton and look cheerful all the time. As a summer covering they're ideal, but they can be had in light, medium and winter weights.
